Completely FREE* 50 hour Internet trial!

Your handy guide to using All NEW AOL 6.0

So easy to use, no wonder we're the World's No.1

*Your 50 hours must be used within your first month online.

*Membership fee applies after your first month online.

ALL SUEW AUL 6.0!

Every time you log on you'll see the new and improved 'Welcome AOL Today' screen which contains the most essential information and services you will want to access regularly

- email, calendar, weather, daily essentials, latest news and the day's chat!

Accessing the Web is easy with AOL. Enter the Web address in the address bar near the top of your screen or find Web sites easily with AOL's powerful search engine, AOL Search.

And AOL 6.0 now includes its own integrated Media Player to give you effortless access to multimedia entertainment and information.

Exciting new features

My Calendar allows you to manage your diary by tracking appointments, diary dates and other key events in one easy-to-access place.

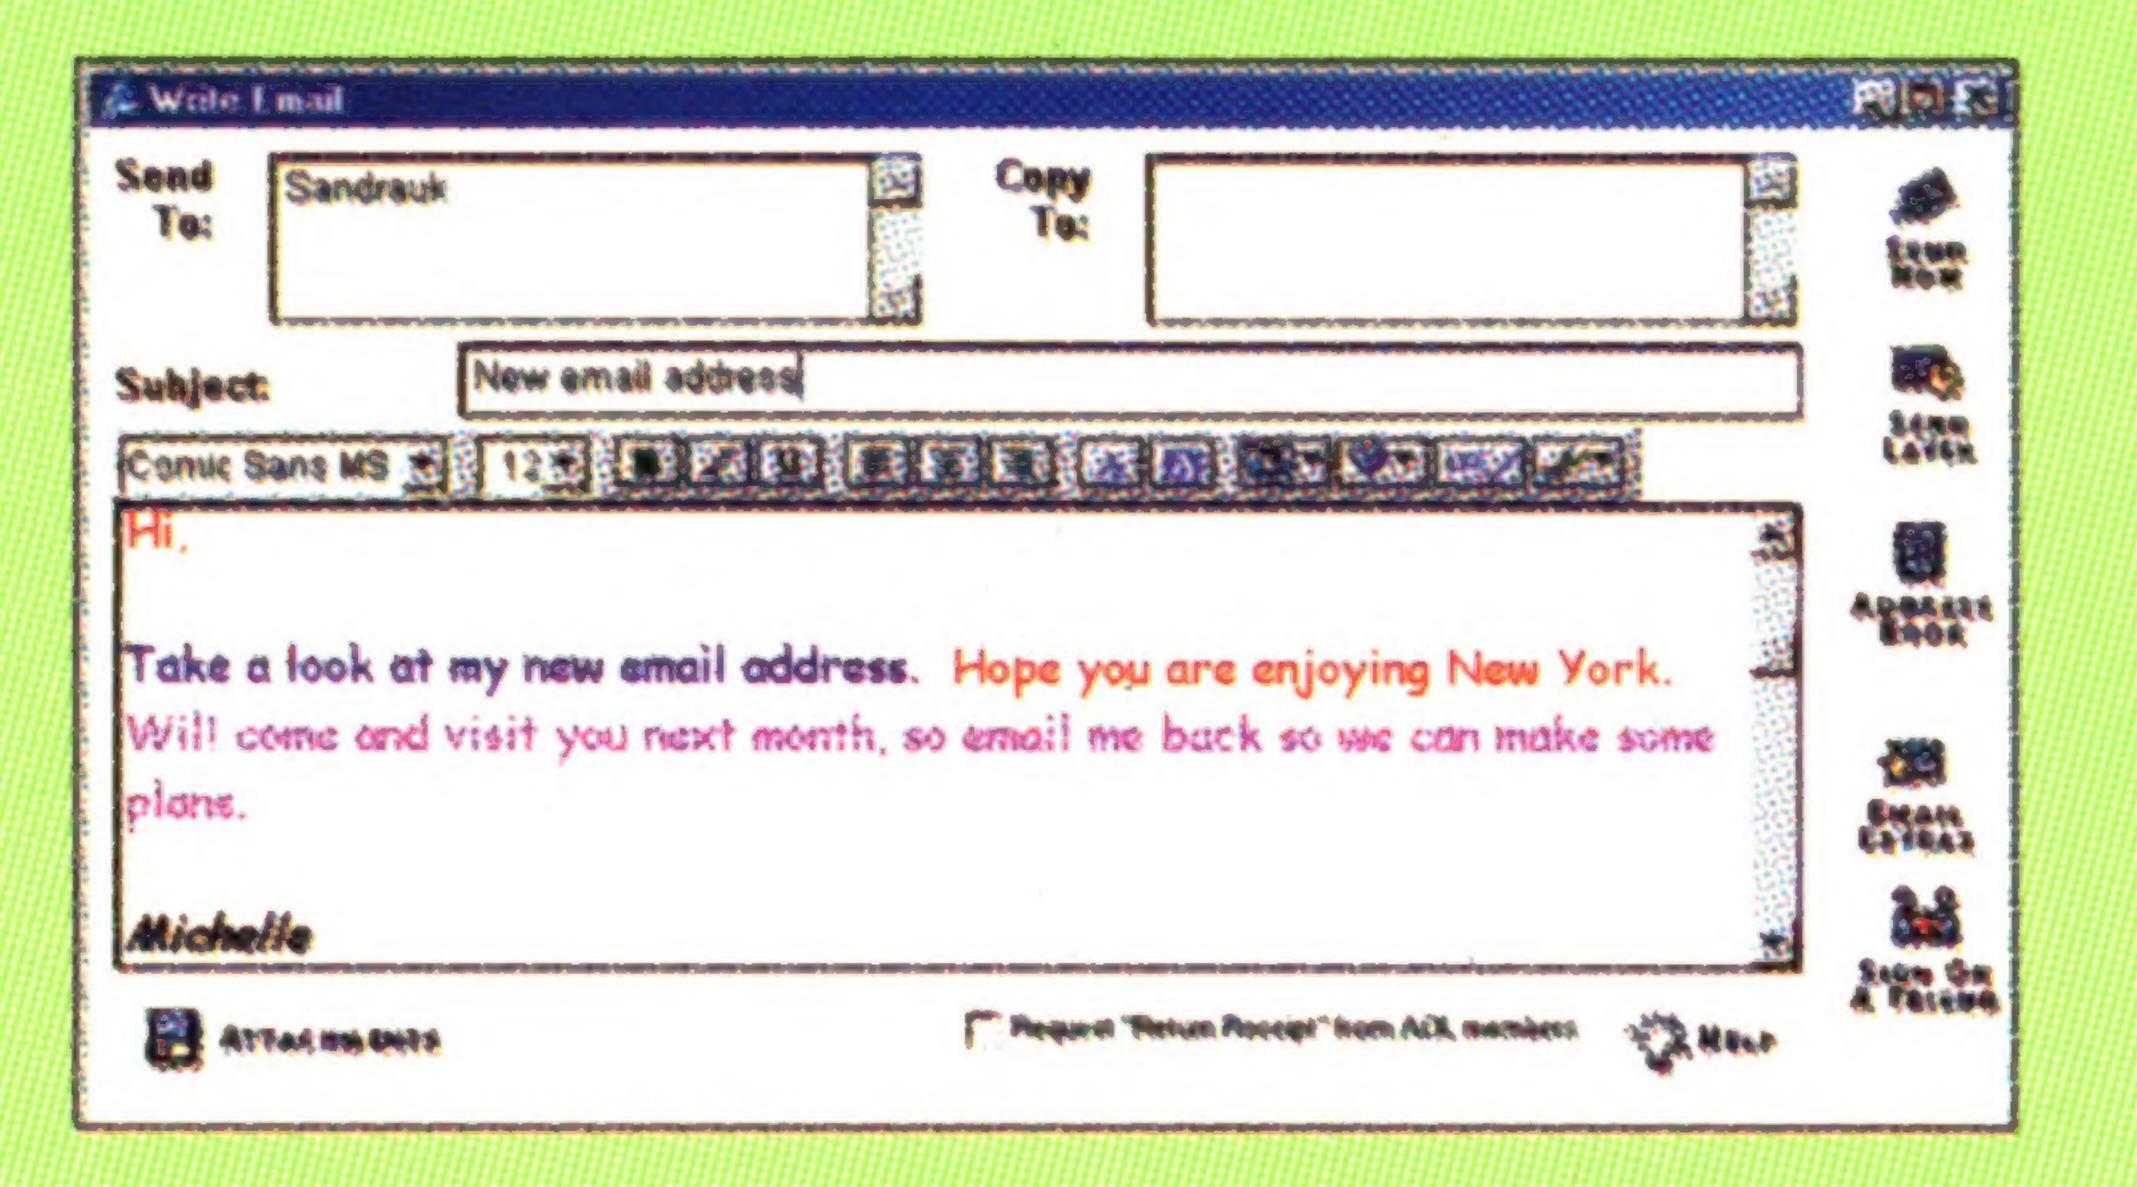

Organise your social group online with Groups@AOL! It's an easy way to inform members of your group about future events, or share photos and jokes online. The shared calendar facility even lets you plan parties, outings and events.

My Calendar and Groups@AOL are both accessible through our Web site www.aol.co.uk.

Enhanced email features

Now, as you start typing an email address that's already stored in your address book, AOL saves you time by completing the rest of the address automatically! Also, your address book is now accessible to you when you are away from your own computer and signed on to AOL 6.0 as a "Guest," and when you are offline.

As well as being able to personalise your emails, AOL version 6.0 allows you to access saved emails easily by filing them by type, date, email address or subject.

And you can now send text messages to friends' mobile phones by using our new SMS messaging service!

Completely IFREE 50 hour Internet trial!

After your FREE* trial you can stay online as long as you like without having to watch the clock with AOL's Flat Rate Internet Access *Your 50 hour free trial must be used within one calendar month of your initial sign on. Unless you cancel your account before the end of your first month online by calling 0800 376 7444 you will thereafter be charged a monthly fee of £14.99 for Flat Rate Internet access. By joining AOL, you agree to commence receiving the AOL service immediately. As a result, your right to cancel your AOL membership is exclusively contained in Section 8 of the AOL Member Agreement. Such cancellation will have effect within 72 hours of the time of delivery of the notice. Please note that there is no statutory cancellation - often known as a 'cooling-off' period, as sometimes applies in the case of other contracts concluded at a distance. This offer only applies when accessing AOL through the specified 0800/0808 AOL Call Free numbers and excludes mobile phones and access over another Internet connection. You will receive no additional charges for your Internet telephone calls or time spent online, but you are responsible for supplemental charges for access to AOL outside the UK. You must be 18 years or over to apply. Offer limited to one free trial per household and available in the UK only. Specific content and services on AOL may be removed without notice or subject to additional usage-related surcharges. Premium services (these are clearly marked) are excluded from the 50 hours trial period and from the AOL Flat Rate price plan. Payment only acceptable by credit card. To use AOL with Windows 95, 98 or Millennium Edition (ME) you require a Pentium class PC or higher, 32Mb of RAM and 80Mb of HD space (up to 180 Mb if Internet Explorer 5.01 is installed). For Windows 2000 you will require a Pentium class PC 166 MHz or higher and 80 Mb of HD space (up to 190 MB free if Internet Explorer 5.01 is installed), a SVGA monitor (256 colour support required), a mouse, a 14.4kbps modem or faster, a dual speed CD ROM drive or faster, and a UK copy of one of the operating systems referred to above. You will also need Microsoft Internet Explorer 5.0 or later as your browser. To use AOL 5.0 for Macintosh you will require a Macintosh PowerPC, iMac, iBook, G3 or G4, OS 8.1 or higher, 32Mb of RAM or higher, 40Mb or more of free disk space, monitor with a resolution of 640x480 and 256 colours or better, modem speed 14.4kbps or higher, CD-ROM drive and mouse. Membership of AOL is subject to your agreement to the Member Agreement. provided to you online before you can access the AOL service. The Member Agreement refers to the fact that you may not sub-license, or charge others to use or access, the AOL Software (such as through a cybercafe or similar undertaking.) If you fail to observe this AOL may withdraw the availability of this pricing plan or terminate your account. Please note that an AOL account is only opened if you register online with AOL. If you have only received the CD an account has not been opened.

If you do not wish to try AOL, you do not need to return the CD - you will not be charged.

If you do not wish to receive any marketing materials from AOL and other selected companies or goods and services that may be of interest to you please tick this box and return to: AOL Data Services, 11A Turney Road, Dulwich, London SE21 8LX. If undelivered please return to this address.
